We hereby assign collection accounts to A.A. Action Collection Company for collection. We hereby authorize A.A. Action to act as our agent for the purpose of collection and give them full authority to use their discretion in the settlement of these accounts. We further authorize A.A. Action to act as our agent for the purpose of instituting suit and acknowledge that representation is limited to our affirmative claim. In the event of any counterclaim, cross-claim, etc., We acknowledge that it is our responsibility to engage an attorney to defend the matter. In order that remittances may be prompt, authorization is given to A.A. Action to endorse checks, drafts and money orders received as payments from debtors. A.A. Action shall retain commissions as shown on this registration form. Costs of suits and collections are advanced by A.A. Action and in consideration of such advances, any out-of-pocket expenses will be credited prior to calculating commissions. We promise to report immediately to A.A. Action all payments made directly to us and A.A. Action shall be entitled to receive their commissions on such payment. If there is No Collection, there is No Charge in most cases. A.A. Action retains any and all rights to accounts once A. A. Action Collection Company has reported them to any of the three major credit bureaus. We agree that accounts One Hundred Ninety Nine Dollars and below are billed at a Fifty percent rate.
